

ANS STUDENT SCHOLARSHIP 2017

- Eligibility:
All Nuclear Engineering students in the Oak Ridge / Knoxville ANS area (Juniors, Seniors, and Graduate Students in the 2017-18 school year)
- Scholarship Values:
$3,000 each (1 undergraduate, 1 graduate)
- Application Due Date:
March 21, 2017

The Oak Ridge / Knoxville Section of the American Nuclear Society will provide annual scholarships (up to $3000 each) for up to two engineering (1 undergraduate and 1 graduate) students studying nuclear engineering and whose university's physical location is within the following zip codes: 37000-37299, 37500-38399, 38500-38599, 40700-40999, 41500-41899, or 42000-42799. These zip codes include the University of Tennessee, Vanderbilt University, and any other college or university that offers nuclear-related research or coursework. Each applicant must be entering their junior or senior year next fall or be a graduate student next fall. Members of the ANS Oak Ridge / Knoxville Section will review the applications and select the most appropriate individual(s). You may apply for this scholarship by providing the information requested below and by having at least two faculty members complete the attached recommendation form. Discuss each topic fully and give specific examples. No specific weighting of each topic has been set for use in the application evaluation. All eligible students are strongly encouraged to apply. Note that the local section may preferentially weight one of the two possible scholarships towards students that have been actively engaged in the national, local, and student activities<sup>1</sup>.

1) Academic Performance

- An official or unofficial copy of your transcript
- These must be mailed or delivered in person (see below)

2) Contributions to the American Nuclear Society

- National ANS activities, including meeting attendance and offices held
- Student ANS chapter activities, including all offices held
- Oak Ridge/Knoxville local section activities, including meeting attendance and offices held
- Other activities that are aligned with ANS objectives, such as ones that promote public understanding of nuclear energy/research.

3) Faculty Recommendation
